O-YA Code of Conduct

As a community based not-for-profit organization, O-YA's relationship with our clients is critical to our success, and we will do our best to provide a safe and enjoyable environment with high quality and fun programs. As an employer, O-YA is responsible to provide its employees with a rewarding, challenging and safe work environment. For these reasons, O-YA has expectations of our clients in our day to day operations:

Client Code of Conduct

1. Treat fellow participants, O-YA staff and volunteers with respect and courtesy. Disrespectful behaviour, including harassing clients or staff, is not acceptable. Respectful behaviour is simple: keep your hands and feet to yourself, speak nicely to each other, listen to O-YA staff and volunteers, ask a Youth Worker for help if you need it.
2. Take care of O-YA's facility, equipment and furniture.
3. Keep valuable / personal items in your backpack, or with you, at all times. O-YA is not responsible for lost or stolen items. Electronic devices including cell phones, ipods, video games are only allowed during 'Fun Friday' program hours. On other days, these items will be taken away and given back upon sign out.

Refusal of Service

O-YA makes every effort to work with clients to continue service, but failure to respect the above Code of Conduct may result in refusal to serve.

Behaviours which are unacceptable will be communicated to parents. However, based on the intent and severity of an incident, participants may be asked to leave before end of program. If your child is asked to leave, parents/guardians will be expected to come directly back to O-YA for pick up. Again, based on the intent and severity of the incident, or if a participant has been sent home 3 times, individuals may be asked to permanently leave the program. Individuals may be asked to leave:

1. Where a manager and an employee agree that a participant has contravened the above Code of Conduct.
2. Where a participant threatens or harms fellow group members, staff or volunteers or is disruptive to the group's ability to function.
3. Where a participant behaves violently, or is threatening or obscene in interaction with employees, volunteers or other service users.

I understand O-YA's Client Code of Conduct and the consequences for contravening the Code.
